GIVES BACK

My name is Mel! I am a freelance designer, art director, and mixed media artist living in Portland, Maine via NYC/Philadelphia. I am self-taught and have been creating full time since 2021, operating an art shop for 5 years now! I love sharing my art with more people and creating a creative community. My work is driven by my queer identity, yummy colors, Italian groceries, sharing love and nostalgia through food/dining. Selling my work in person at pop-ups and art fairs has been successful, but I truly love sharing my art through small and local businesses and creating an even bigger impact. Hearing how much joy my art brings my stockists and their customers is the best feeling!!
